Module aims

The module aims can be broken down as follows:

1. It offers students an introduction to several practices of writing, including poetry, creative non-fiction, fiction, performance, and other forms of writing.
2. Rhetoric, form and genre will be among the topics discussed and practised.
3. Students will produce examples of high quality work to meet specific challenges.
4. It will enable students to develop a range of creative as well as expository styles and approaches; to understand and practice various forms of 'address'; and to be read more widely in contemporary world literature.
