HA3D9-30 Venice, Rise and Myth: Art and Architecture in the Veneto (1100-1600)

21/22

Department
SCAPVC - History of Art
Level
Undergraduate Level 3
Module leader
Louise Bourdua
Credit value
30
Module duration
10 weeks
Assessment
100% coursework
Study location
Warwick in Venice

Description

Introductory description

This module examines key Venetian buildings and monuments and their decoration (mosaics, paintings, sculptures, etc.) in the light of their unique physical and historical context from the twelfth to the seventeenth century. Venice's early links with the Byzantine empire, its status as a maritime republic and its distinctive political situation fostered a culture different from those of other Italian cities and which can be studied as a discrete entity. The influence of Venice on art and architecture in the main land will also be examined through, for example, study trips.

Module aims

The aim is to study Venice's key buildings and monuments and their decoration (mosaics, paintings, sculptures) in terms of their commissioning, manufacture, consumption and reception. We do this by fostering awareness of the relationship between art and its physical and cultural contexts by close examination of artefacts and buildings in their original location and the unique physical and historical context of Venice from the twelfth to the seventeenth century. Key primary and secondary sources are analysed in lectures while seminars and day trips provide the opportunity for intensive first-hand study of Venetian and Renaissance art and architecture in context.

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

Introduction: The 'Birth' and 'Myths' of Venice
The Byzantine Connection
Painting and sculpture in 14th-century Venice & Padua
Medieval and Renaissance architecture
Narrative Painting and the Venetian Scuole
Travel and independent study of monuments
The Venetian altarpiece
Sacred and Profane Painting and Sculpture

Learning outcomes

By the end of the module, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of developments in Venetian art and architecture from c. 1100 to c. 1600.
- Analyse works of art with respect to their physical makeup, location and cultural context.
- Gain confidence by speaking in front of works of art
- Present an argument, initiate and sustain group discussion through intelligent questioning and debate at an appropriate level
- Ability to undertake research and to write up the results in the form of a well-structured argument at an appropriate level
- Familiarity with essential ICT skills
- Ability to collaborate effectively with others
- Show understanding of diverse viewpoints
- Ability to find, select, organize and synthesize evidence
- Ability to formulate a sustained argument
- Think conceptually and independently at an appropriate level
- Employ sophisticated conceptual and visual analysis
- Demonstrate bibliographical skills at an appropriate level

Indicative reading list

Reading lists can be found in Talis

Specific reading list for the module

Research element

Students will be able to select relevant individual buildings/monuments and explore them independently as part of their assessment

International

This module is taught in Venice through class-based learning, on-site seminars and external study visits. It enables students to live, research and study in another country and culture.

Subject specific skills

- Demonstrate an understanding of developments in Venetian art and architecture from c.1100 to c.1600.
- Analyse works of art with respect to their physical makeup, location and cultural context.
- Gain confidence by speaking in front of works of art
- Employ sophisticated conceptual and visual analysis

Transferable skills

- present an argument, initiate and sustain group discussion through intelligent questioning and debate at an appropriate level
- ability to undertake research and to write up the results in the form of a well-structured argument at an appropriate level
- familiarity with essential ICT skills
- ability to collaborate effectively with others
- show understanding of diverse viewpoints
- ability to find, select, organize and synthesize evidence
- ability to formulate a sustained argument
- think conceptually and independently at an appropriate level
- Demonstrate bibliographical skills at an appropriate level

Study

Study time

Type	Required
Lectures	8 sessions of 2 hours (5%)
Seminars	4 sessions of 2 hours (3%)
External visits	3 sessions of 8 hours (8%)
Other activity	4 hours (1%)
Private study	248 hours (83%)
Total	300 hours

Private study description

Required and recommended reading for lectures, on site seminars and presentations, external visits and research/writing of portfolio; independent viewing, research and study of sites, buildings, monuments.

Other activity description

Orientation; tour of libraries and new teaching campus; introduction to new assessment methods.

Costs

No further costs have been identified for this module.

Assessment

You do not need to pass all assessment components to pass the module.

Assessment group A

	Weighting	Study time	Eligible for self-certification
Assessment component
Portfolio	90%		Yes (extension)
Portfolio providing evidence of independent knowledge and research of sites, buildings and monuments including visual and material analysis, and a case study demonstrating advanced skills of contextual analysis and use of primary sources
Reassessment component is the same
Assessment component
Engagement	10%		No
Reassessment component
Journal			No

Feedback on assessment

Written feedback and dedicated feedback tutorials

Availability

Courses

This module is Core optional for:

- Year 3 of UHAA-V401 Undergraduate History of Art