Module aims

1. To demonstrate the ability to study abroad for a year at a host university approved by the History department;
2. To experience and gain a deeper understanding of the social and cultural diversity of the country where you undertake your year abroad;
3. To travel abroad and achieve personal development in preparation for employment and global citizenship;
4. To develop your spoken, written, and communications skills in the language of the country where you undertake your year abroad.
5. To further your knowledge and understanding of History by taking modules that are not available to study at Warwick;
6. To provide the opportunity to study modules outside of History that might not normally be available to study at Warwick.
