Description

Introductory description

This is an elective module available for non-WBS students only who wish to study a module covering various elements of business as a foundational subject.

Students must not have studied any other WBS modules that cover accounting, organisational behaviour, strategy or marketing.

Subtitled 'Value-based management', this module is intended for non-business undergraduates who wish to gain exposure to management of business in their final year of study. It covers the core subject areas of general managerial competency affecting the strategic management of business practices (human resources management, accounting, marketing and organisational behaviour) that provide foundation skills needed to run a business.
