Description

Introductory description

This module is the equivalent of a level 6 module in Spanish at the Language Centre.

This module is designed to help students achieve a high level of language proficiency in Spanish and to maximise their experience of the language. It is structured around viewing and discussing feature-length films in Spanish to foster a better understanding of Latin American and Spanish societies and to explore contemporary issues and the linguistic variants portrayed in the films.

Prior knowledge of Spanish required:

- successful completion of Spanish Language Centre level 5
- a B2.2 level of the CEFR (Common European Framework of reference for Languages)
- a good A level or equivalent + 1 year of further study
- or equivalent

Successful completion of Film qualifies students to progress to Spanish language through Translation.
