

PO240-15 Capitalism and Its Alternatives

22/23

Department

Politics & International Studies

Level

Undergraduate Level 2

Module leader

Chris Rogers

Credit value

15

Module duration

10 weeks

Assessment

100% coursework

Study location

University of Warwick main campus, Coventry

Description

Introductory description

Mainstream political discourses often allude to the fact that, in the context of globalization, there is little choice but to pursue particular kinds of policies. Critical discourses in political economy, on the other hand, have often spoken of the need to replace capitalism with an alternative. This module scrutinizes the way in which discourses of this kind might combine in order to produce and reinforce liberal-market forms of capitalism. It aims to illustrate the complexity involved in identifying 'capitalist' and 'alternative' forms of social, political, and economic relations, consider the processes through which the transformation of these social relations might occur, and introduces and critically discuss examples of both real and imagined alternatives to capitalism.

Module web page

Module aims

- To scrutinise claims that there is no alternative to liberal market capitalism
- To scrutinise critiques of liberal market capitalism and its alternatives
- To develop an understanding of various theories of social, political, and economic transformation

- To examine various alternative capitalist and non-capitalist forms of social and economic organisation in practice
- To develop student's research and writing skills

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

1. Introduction
2. Critique and Capitalist Hegemony
3. Theories of Transformation
4. Utopian Socialism
5. Technological Change and (Post) Capitalism
6. READING WEEK
7. Workers' Cooperatives and Mondragon
8. Zapatista
9. The Right to the City
10. Humanising Capitalism

Learning outcomes

By the end of the module, students should be able to:

- Be able to critically engage with the notion that there is no alternative to liberal market capitalism
- Understand the relative merits of critiques of liberal market capitalism and its alternatives
- Critically assess the relative merits of various theories of social, political, and economic transformation
- Have a rounded empirical knowledge of various alternative capitalist and non-capitalist forms of social and economic organisation
- Have developed their research and essay writing skills

Indicative reading list

E. O. Wright (2010) Envisioning Real Utopias Verso
 J.K. Gibson-Graham (1996) The End of Capitalism as We Knew it University of Minnesota Press
 J.K. Gibson-Graham (2006) A Post Capitalist Politics, University of Minnesota Press
 G. Claeys (1991) A New View of Society and Other Writings Penguin
 N. Srnicek and A Williams (2015) Inventing the Future Verso Books
 G. Standing (2011) The Precariat I. B. Tauris
 D. Harvey (2013) Rebel Cities Verso Books
 C. Rogers (2014) Capitalism and Its Alternatives Zed Books
 J. Holloway (2005) Change the World Without Taking Power Pluto Press

View reading list on Talis Aspire

Subject specific skills

To scrutinise claims that there is no alternative to liberal market capitalism

- To scrutinise critiques of liberal market capitalism and its alternatives
- To develop an understanding of various theories of social, political, and economic transformation
- To examine various alternative capitalist and non-capitalist forms of social and economic organisation in practice
- To develop student's research and writing skills

Transferable skills

The module provides students with opportunities to acquire or develop the following key skills:

Develop your reading comprehension through an engagement with the core texts

Develop your analytical writing skills through the preparation of summative assessments

Develop your group working skills through seminar discussions

Study

Study time

Type	Required
Lectures	9 sessions of 1 hour (6%)
Seminars	9 sessions of 1 hour (6%)
Private study	132 hours (88%)
Total	150 hours

Private study description

seminar reading and formative essays

Costs

No further costs have been identified for this module.

Assessment

You do not need to pass all assessment components to pass the module.

Assessment group A2

	Weighting	Study time	Eligible for self-certification
Assessment component
Book Review	20%	15 hours	Yes (extension)
Students will be required to write a 750 word review of a book from a list provided by the module director. Students should provide a summary of the core arguments of the text, and offer a critical reflection on the strength of its arguments with reference to other interventions in the core debates studied on the module. The assessment should be submitted in week 7, and so this engagement should principally be with material covered in the module in the weeks before reading week.
Reassessment component is the same
Assessment component
Essay Portfolio	80%	20 hours	Yes (extension)
Students will be required to answer two questions to form an essay portfolio. Questions will reflect the breadth of the module. Submission will be on the 2nd Wednesday of the subsequent term. Each answer should not exceed 1250 words and should be fully referenced.
Reassessment component is the same

Feedback on assessment

PAIS feedback form

Availability

Courses

This module is Optional for:

- Year 2 of UECA-LM1D Undergraduate Economics, Politics and International Studies
- Year 2 of UPOA-M162 Undergraduate Politics, International Studies and Quantitative Methods

This module is Option list A for:

- Year 3 of UPOA-M163 Undergraduate Politics, International Studies and French
- Year 3 of UPOA-M164 Undergraduate Politics, International Studies and German
- Year 3 of UPOA-M166 Undergraduate Politics, International Studies and Hispanic Studies
- Year 3 of UPOA-M165 Undergraduate Politics, International Studies and Italian

This module is Option list C for:

- Year 2 of UHIA-VM11 Undergraduate History and Politics