Description

Introductory description

The module is an option in the new taught MA in Ancient Visual and Material Culture, complementing other modules concentrating upon epigraphy and numismatics. It will allow students to explore different approaches to the visual imagery of the ancient world and to relate this material to their research interests.

Module aims

The module will introduce students to the many different forms taken by art in the ancient world and the ways that this material can be approached and used in the study of wider historical issues. It will help to fulfil the MA's aim to develop a wide-ranging and detailed knowledge of the visual culture of the ancient world as well as to develop students' critical and conceptual understanding of the methodological issues relating to its study.

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

Week 1 - What is ancient art and how can we study it?

Week 2 - Approaching the Divine

Week 3 - Funerary Art and Self-representation

Week 4 - Art and Narrative

Week 5 - Art & Class

Week 6 - Art and Regional Identity

Week 7 - Art and Propaganda.

Week 8 - Cross-cultural influences in Art

Week 9 - Ancient Ceramics

Week 10 - Essay presentations

(NB these will be spread over 2 terms, meeting fortnightly).

Learning outcomes
