Module aims

The module aims to help the students appreciate the complexities of entrepreneurship and develop an enterprising mindset through an interdisciplinary overview of the process that leads to business creation. This includes reflections on different aspects of the entrepreneurial process such as the motivation to start a business, opportunity identification, social and legal responsibilities, financial resources and business planning.

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

Indicative Content Exploring entrepreneurship from various disciplines and viewpoints, the module curates a range of expertise from the fields of Psychology, Business Studies, Education, Information Systems, Cultural Policy, and more. Each session is unique and will take you on a reflective journey of personal and academic growth.

Indicative topics covered in the module include:

The Role of Motivation and Passion in Entrepreneurship

Creative Thinking

Failure in Entrepreneurship

Social and Ethical Entrepreneurship

Digital Entrepreneurship

Intrapreneurship

Learning outcomes

By the end of the module, students should be able to:

- Display an understanding of the different disciplinary approaches in relation to entrepreneurship and express the complexity of entrepreneurship through multiple lenses.
- Appraise different perspectives on the same topic and make an informed evaluation
- Appreciate the value of adopting interdisciplinary approaches to enhance their understanding of their entrepreneurial mindset
- Reflect on their idea of enterprise before and after the module
- Make connections between their own discipline and the object of this module (enterprise), and formulate original research questions
- Articulate a coherent, informed and justified position regarding the role of entrepreneurship
- Communicate engagement with the topic to a non-academic audience
