Module aims

Students are introduced to the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch) which is the core of German Private Law. They will familiarise themselves with the structure of German Private Law and will learn to apply German legal methodology on a case-by-case basis. At the end of the year, students will have obtained a detailed knowledge of the General Part of the Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch as well as the Law of Obligations. They will be able to use the Bürgerliche Gesetzbuch and research cases independently.
