Description

Introductory description

The purpose of the portfolio is to provide a record of how students' time was spent during their year away and to conduct a critical evaluation of their own personal experiences and how they have developed skills during their Year Away (using the PRACTICE Framework).

It should also demonstrate an awareness, appreciation and understanding of the wider cultural and business-related issues in the relevant industries/sectors/countries in which they undertaken their year away.

This will be the only module completed in relation to students' year away and counts towards 10% of their overall degree.

This module is only open to WBS undergraduate students. Students from other departments cannot take this module.

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

The syllabus is student-led, requiring reflection on personal experiences and reference to research in relevant areas such as expatriate training, learning styles and inter-cultural issues.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the module, students should be able to:

- Show that you have met the requirements of the relevant year away detailed in your cohort handbook e.g. CATS load, level and duration of work placement.
- Place your experiences of a business degree in the context of your awareness of issues and skills which are important in the workplace
- Critically evaluate your own experiences

Indicative reading list
