Description

Introductory description

The Internship module is an alternative to the Research Paper/Dissertation and applied route optional core modules for students wishing to add a work placement into their course. The internship would be between 6 and 12 weeks and would fall anytime in the period after all modules are complete, and before the final project is submitted in September. Students can undertake their internship in the UK or overseas.

Module aims

The aim of the module is to document the learning from a student's period of work in a company of their choosing, either in the UK or overseas. It aims to develop students' ability to conduct a critical evaluation of their own personal experience during their work placement, including how to reflect on their own challenges, development and skill acquisition. Students are expected to identify and appraise sustainable practice (environmental, social, and governance) within their internship.

Outline syllabus

This is an indicative module outline only to give an indication of the sort of topics that may be covered. Actual sessions held may differ.

The syllabus is student-led, requiring reflection on personal experiences and reference to research in relevant areas such as learning styles, team dynamics and (if working overseas) intercultural competencies.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the module, students should be able to:

- Contrast subject knowledge with an evaluation of practices observed during the internship
- Critically evaluate the business practices of the chosen company

Indicative reading list

Reading lists can be found in Talis

Research element

Students will be expected to engage with relevant research in their written report.

Interdisciplinary

Dependent on the internship

International

Students can choose to work with a company in the UK or overseas and are instructed to reflect on intercultural aspects.
